Silver fox

Bring this handsome fellow into your world. The tactile silver fabric chimes perfectly with the trend for antique metals and is as comfortable and practical as it is pleasing to the eye.

Pot luck

Lex Potta's True Colour vases are pieces of design art that experiment with oxidation and the effects on colour and texture. Display and cherish.

Nature deconstructed

In there no end to the talents of this Spaniard, but for unlike his modern architectural forms, this rug is soft, rich and wistful. Just what we love.

Outdoor light,

Light up the night

Forget everything you know about outdoor lighting. The Celeste lanterns by famed designer Philippe Nigro will doubtless become collectible pieces.

Rich in wood

French furniture designer Jean Marc Gady is known for his unexpected approach to the everyday, and this elegant set of drawers turns different strains of wood into a harmony of design and colour.
